Bradford March 2. 1888

Dear Egbert

Your letter of the 22nd Feb. was duly rec. Also your Mothers of the 25th Grandma will answer it Soon. We were very glad to hear that you were well. I will Enclose two dollars to you. One from Jacob Carman and one from Frank Hedges. I will send to you as fast as I can collect. Aunt Celina expects to go to Uncle Willards to morrow. She sends her best love to you all. Will write to your Mother when she gets to Uncle Willards. We have had quite cold wether the last of Feb. But March came in warm mercury above 40 this morning Snow nearly gone. Tell your Mother we have another Minister at Weston. He is from Auburn a Mr Frothingham

He will not move into Parsonage until the first of June He will close his Studies at Auburn at that time He is a man about 40 or over will commence the year the first of April. We are well as usual I pulled on the scale down 140 last night

Love to all

Yours Affy
Wm. E. Crane
